Hey guys,

Recently there's been a lot of accusations thrown around about how the ASU CR's are currently running. I understand there's a lot of passion coming from both sides. I just wanted to set a few things straight.

My board and I have never broken the Constitution. Dr. Critchlow, USG and Student Services have all looked over these allegations, at Rick's and other's request, and have found nothing to be unconstitutional. I can understand where they would be frustrated, they interpret the Constitution differently. However, the school, state federation and national federation all agree with how the Constitution is being interpreted by my board.

The decision made yesterday was not one made lightly. Rick has been terrorizing multiple members of my board, members of the club, as well as me since the beginning of the academic school year. Due to the multiple comments he's made in private and at the meetings, my board and I felt there were no other options after Rick recently complained about my VP having missed one meeting, due to a Jewish holiday (which had been explained to Rick).

We consulted with the State and National Federations, as well as Student Services before the decision was made. All parties were in agreement. In order to focus on the National Federation's mission statement of growing the CRs, we felt it was necessary to expel a couple of members who were attempting to divide and constrict the membership.

Let me be clear, no Republican candidate has been banned from speaking at the CRs. Our State Constitution is very clear in remaining neutral during Republican primaries. We are a group of students who identify as all shades of red and encourage all Republican candidates for office to reach out and schedule a time to speak with our members.

We're sorry that this has caused so much drama. Hopefully soon we're able to get back to focusing on building our party to ensure we maintain victory in 2018.

Lucas Freeland Can you explain why the CRs haven't been tabling? We missed voter registration day and haven't raised awareness on campus once this semester.

Jennifer Custis I have applied to table multiple times and each time I have been told all of the spots are full.

Like Reply · October 7 at 6:00pm

David Lattimer II Are you being blocked or they are full? Which is it?

Derrik Rochwalik The CRs are being blocked by USG from tabling.

Like Reply 4 · October 7 at 6:04pm

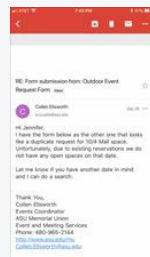

Jennifer Custis David, have you ever seen the MU fill of tables? It seems like they're telling me they're full when they actually aren't

Like Reply · October 7 at 6:32pm

David Lattimer II Jennifer Custis Ok I just want to find out what was happening. You are saying USG is getting in the way of you tabling based on the fact that tabling isn't full and you are in fact going in to apply for tabling?

Jennifer Custis Correct.

Like Reply · October 7 at 6:48pm

Jacob Pritchett How can USG block you from tabling? The reservations are handled by MU staff.

Jacob Pritchett Anyway, if you want to reach people but can't get table

Nathan Brown Pretty sure it is open to interpretation. That's how these things sometimes work.

Richard Moorhead Apparently it was recently changed to allow the CR board to expel anyone without a member vote. That was never the case previously.

Lucas Freeland Nathan Brown and it is certainly clear that James Malone deserved it. We are all wondering what Lauren did. A leader like you would have no problems addressing that if it was your decision, but the board has been quiet

I refuse to associate myself with a club that will just expel people for expressing discontent with club leadership.

Richard Moorhead Nathan wasn't my question, as I specifically mentioned a general membership vote. There was one in that circumstance, if I remember correctly one individual was expelled and one wasn't Nathan Brown Richard Moorhead, not under my leadership. Two people were expelled via the board. No vote by membership was ever taken in regards to expulsion.

Lauren Kasle The sitting secretary has yet to attend one meeting, one event, and is not performing her duties of recording meeting minutes (to my knowledge). Per the constitution, she is obligated to fulfill these requirements, which to my knowledge she is not.

D) Duties of the Secretary:
i) The Secretary shall:
a. Keep the minutes of meetings and provide a copy of the minutes to the Chairman and Vice-Chairman within 24 hours of any officially called meeting of the ASUCRS if they ask;
b. Be an authorizing signatory on all ASUCR financial documents;
c. Assume any duty delegated to the Secretary by the Chairman;
d. Attend and support the activities of the ASUCRS.

A) Necessary grounds for impeachment:
i. High crimes and misdemeanors;
ii. Embezzlement of funds;
iii. Jeopardizing the operations of the ASUCRS;
iv. Neglecting the duties of their elected office;
v. Failure to abide by the guidelines of this Constitution;
B) Impeachment procedure:
i. Any member of the ASUCRS may file a grievance against any Executive or Chapter Board member under any of the necessary grounds for impeachment.
ii. Upon receipt of a grievance, the Executive Board shall meet to discuss the grievance. The Board shall have the ability to call the accused, as well as the accuser, in addition to any necessary witnesses at their discretion for purpose of determining the validity of charges to be brought.
iii. After reviewing the grievance, the Executive Board shall determine if impeachment proceedings are necessary by a majority vote of the Executive Board.
iv. During the next regularly scheduled meeting following the Executive Board's vote, the accused Officer shall stand open trial. During this time, the Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall act as justices, and all other members at the meeting shall act as the jury.

David Lattimer II I agree with Katie Ward if you are banning people for making comments against multiple members of the club would you care to explain why an "Associate Member" is allowed to entice members of the club to leave the club?

Derrick Rochwalik And for someone who wants to be on the bylaws committee so badly to help mend the CRs, I find it ironic you walked out today... I take it you won't be coming back?

Derrick Rochwalik I will concede my comment was posted without thought and in the midst of some back and forth between myself and Rick. What we can all take away from this is the importance of thinking before you make comments.

Look forward to seeing you at the Rubio event on Monday. Thanks for volunteering David!

David Lattimer II My point stands. Why is Lauren banned but Derrick is not Jennifer Custis ? I would like to see some equal play here. Either its both bad or neither is bad. Please consider re-instating Lauren's membership.

Lauren Kasle That's a pretty easy statement to make when you're not on the receiving end of wrongful punishment even though you had just as much involvement.

Chris DeRose Can I offer some old man perspective here? I joined the CR's 19 years ago, before some of you were born. Here's what I would say:

1 - The Democrats are the real enemy. Stop fighting with each other. Your country is at stake. I don't hate myself enough to learn the details of the current situation but the result should be that everyone is back together in one club with a leadership team that has the support of most of the members.

2 - You're not going to like everyone you're in the club with. You're not going to like everyone you work with after college. It's great training for something you'll have to do every day after college if you want to be successful.
