It's obvious who aligns with who. McSally = Trump, Ward = Bannon. Trump said Bannon is crazy, so are the Bannon candidates. I'm siding with the President and voting for McSally #AZSen

Omg Rick Thomas, glad you could take break from running the ASU Alt-Right club to bash real Republicans. You sided with Bannon over Trump, your opinion is mute

P.S. It's pathetic that after losing College Republicans elections 2x & Turning Point elections you started a new club

That's a lie. The pictures of each club are public. ASU CR's have more than double your membership. Don't worry everyone will be made aware that your just alt right posers. Have a great day.

protip, if you're going to use some random girl's picture as your avatar, maybe find one that can't be traced with reverseimage search. Didn't they teach you that Kyle Moyer & Company?

Must really burn that after Jennifer used her sorority to pump in non-members to vote for a rigged election, that it still ended in a tie vote.
